

Cookie Policy of Climate Support Organisation

This Cookie Policy explains how Climate Support Organisation (“we”, “our”, “us”) uses cookies and similar technologies on our website www.climate-support.org.

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit our site. They allow us to ensure the site functions properly, improve your user experience, provide analytics, and deliver relevant marketing.

Some cookies are set by us (first-party cookies), while others are set by third parties (third-party cookies), such as analytics or advertising providers.

How We Use Cookies

Strictly Necessary Cookies: These are essential for the operation of our website.

Functional Cookies: These allow us to remember your preferences and improve your experience.

Statistical Cookies: These help us understand how visitors use the site and improve its performance.

Marketing Cookies: These are used to deliver relevant ads and measure campaign effectiveness.

Managing Preferences and Consent

When you first visit our website, you are asked to provide consent for the use of cookies. You can accept all cookies, reject non-essential cookies, or customise preferences. Consent can be withdrawn or changed at any time through the cookie settings link on our site.

Data Sharing and Third Parties

Some cookies are provided by third-party services, which may collect data about your browsing activities across different websites.

Retention of Cookies

Cookies remain on your device for varying periods depending on their purpose: some are deleted when you close your browser, while others remain until they expire or are deleted manually.

Updates

We may update this Cookie Policy to reflect changes in technology, regulation, or our practices.
